Star Trek: Nemesis - Wikipedia

Basically, X-Men is happening on this planet in the Star Trek universe. Because of this, the actual X-Men tell Captain Picard that they'll be happy to help out, because they know what it's like to succumb to weird bodily changes and discover that you've got all these new powers that you can't control.

Star Trek: The Next Generation/X-Men: Planet X review
Star Trek The Next Generation X-Men was the Second best Star Trek Book I had ever read its also the best crossover story book novel I also read it was cool at the end of the story when the X-Men returned to earth of 20th century in there time and Q and watcher show up at the end of the story.

Planet X by Michael Jan Friedman - Goodreads
The author also addresses the fact that the same actor (Patrick Stewart) played both Professor X in the movies as well as Commander Picard in the ST:TNG series, with a nice little holodeck encounter between them which somehow just seemed too contrived --- since it was previously established that the X-Men were from a different universe than the Star Trek crew, the latter would not have access to the history records of the former in order to establish a Professor X on the holodeck.
