RIGHTEOUS is the story of Isaiah's investigation of his brother's death, a quest that will lead him to his greatest adversary, a man who may be IQ's own Moriarty. RIGHTEOUS is also the story of Sarita, Isaiah's older brother's girlfriend, for whom Isaiah feels a lasting, troubling love.

Both IQ and this book (Righteous) take place in South Central Los Angeles, in a very poor neighborhood. It is a credit to Joe Ide that even though many of the characters are involved in crime or drugs - that they are full human beings who deserve some empathy and understanding.

Righteous (IQ, #2) by Joe Ide

RIGHTEOUS ends with the revelation of the person behind Marcus' death --- IQ's own personal Moriarty --- and it's a stunner. Sherlock Holmes is my favorite fictional character, and I love the modern-day depictions of him from TV shows like "House," "Sherlock" and "Elementary," in addition to countless novelizations.
